Anthro Fox.

I range from
semi to complete
-ly verbal in this state.

Equally as hyper and
excitable
as quad.

I am rarely ever just 1 form. Usually it is some mix of fox and cat or anthro and quad

Cat Quad

Quiet, subdued reactions

Always non verbal and generally sensitive to sound and touch.

Note: The look of cat and fox are
not stagnant,
the same goes
for their colors.
this is just how they show up
in my mind at this point in my life.

ANTARO

CAT

I'm a lot more capable of doing
tasks in this form
I can talk although will typically stay quiet
unless prompted.

Not as socially
capable and expressive as

fox but can get the job done.

When in Quad Fox form
I tend to be more excitable and expressive.
I am more inclined to speak although generally I will be nonverbal.

It is also a lot harder
to read and comprehend
in this form

I feel like personifying my states of being make them easier to deal with and also a bit easier to explain to people. This is something that is ever-changing for me although the descriptions of cat and fox are accurate to how I feel right now. If you relate in any way I would love to hear from you and if you have questions I'd be happy to answer them.
